Attendance Matters

Every Day Counts....

What is considered good attendance? Regular and punctual attendance is essential for effective learning, promoting positive relationships and developing good attitudes to education. A child's attendance at school is expected to be 96% and above. Anything that is below this needs to be addressed by school to ensure attendance improves. We need to ensure that all children attend school regularly as it is important for friendships and academic progress/success.

Key daily timings:

8:50 to 9:00 → Register takes place
After 9:00 → Late mark in register
After 9:30 → Unauthorised ab-

FOHS Pumpkin Trail!

Get ready for some Autumn fun! Our school PTA has organised a Pumpkin Trail around Haverigg to help raise money for our school and everyone is welcome to take part!

Maps will be available to purchase from the school and Haverigg shop from next week. Entries cost just £1 per person.

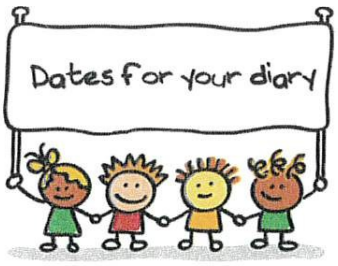

With the help of their parents, children will need to follow the trail and find the images of pumpkins to uncover a secret message. Once they have completed the trail, they should return their completed entry form to be entered into the prize draw.

There's a prize for everyone who takes part and all correct entries will be entered into a draw to win an extra special overall prize!

The lucky overall winner will be announced at our first school assembly after the holidays.

So grab a map, get exploring and see if you can crack the secret message!

Good luck, everyone!

Your child now has a myHappymind Parent App sticker in their reading record, which includes a QR code and our school authentication code.

As part of our school subscription to myHappymind, all parents have free access to the app and its full range of resources. Just scan the QR code and enter the authentication code to get started.

The app allows you to see and reinforce some of the strategies and modules we use with the children in school, including emotional regulation and managing big emotions.

There are also lots of helpful resources for parents covering more challenging areas such as separation anxiety, neurodiversity and emotional outbursts, as well as podcasts and other practical support.

We'd really encourage you to log in and have a look around. There is lots there to support you and your child at home.

SHOW RACISM THE RED CARD

Dear Parents/Guardians (Years 1-6) – Tuesday 6th October 2026

We are pleased to inform you that your school has partnered with Show Racism the Red Card, the UK's leading anti-racism education charity, to deliver an important workshop for your young people. This workshop is designed to educate and empower young minds to recognise, challenge, and combat racism in all its forms, fostering a more inclusive and respectful community.

During the session, your child will explore themes such as:

- Understanding and identifying racism.
- Stereotypes, unconscious bias, and their impact.
- Allyship and how to support those who experience racism.

The activities will include age-appropriate discussions, real-life examples, and group exercises, aiming to build empathy and inspire students to act as changemakers in their school and community.

Continuing the Conversation at Home

We encourage you to continue these important discussions at home. Here are some questions you might ask your child after the workshop:

- What did you learn about racism today?
- Can you share an example of a stereotype and why it's harmful?
- What does being an ally mean to you?

Show Racism the Red Card worked with Usborne books to create 'What is Racism' and a Lift the Flap questions about racism books which you may find useful if you want to continue to discuss anti-racism at home: Books about racism for kids | Usborne | Be Curious.

Supporting a Child Who May Experience Racism

If your child has experienced or may experience racism, sometimes attending anti-racism workshops can be challenging for them. We design our workshops to be empowering and to create a safe space.

- Listen and Validate: Create a safe space for your child to share their experiences without judgment. Let them know their feelings are valid and that they are not alone.
- Reassure: Remind your child that racism is unacceptable and that it reflects the prejudices of others, not anything about them.
- Empower: Help them understand that they have the right to speak out and seek support from trusted adults, including teachers or school staff.
- Advocate: If incidents of racism occur, work with the school to ensure that the matter is addressed appropriately.

If you would like to learn more about anti-racism SRtRC recommends the following resources:

1. Books
    a. "Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People About Race" by Reni Eddo-Lodge – A powerful exploration of systemic racism and privilege in the UK.
    b. "Me and White Supremacy" by Layla F. Saad – A guided workbook to help individuals unpack privilege and become effective allies.
    c. "So You Want to Talk About Race" by Ijeoma Oluo – A practical guide to having conversations about race and racism.
    d. "Natives - Race and Class in the Ruins of Empire" by Akala- Part memoir, the book provides race and class analysis of a variety of historical eras, in addition to contemporary British society.
    e. "I Heard What You Said – A Black Teacher, a White System" by Jeffrey Boakye – The perspective of a Black, male teacher on the British Education system and a thought-provoking and fearless exploration of how we can dismantle racism in the classroom and do better by all our students.

2. Websites and Online Resources
    a. Show Racism the Red Card – Offers videos, guides, and activities to learn about anti-racism and allyship.
    b. The Conscious Kid – Resources on parenting and teaching children about race and equity (although is US based has some lovely books and resources for young people)

Attendance matters 24th October 2025

Dear parents and carers,

This academic year we have once again had increasing numbers of families taking children out of school for holidays during term time. As you will all be aware, schools must consider enforcement action if a child/young person has 10 or more unauthorised sessions (equivalent to five days). While schools and local authorities will generally offer support to improve attendance first, persistent unauthorised absences or term-time holidays may result in a Fixed Penalty Notice or prosecution.

As part of our ongoing attendance monitoring and in line with the Cumberland attendance strategy, we will now be passing on attendance casefiles to the local authority where we feel the threshold has been met for fixed term penalty.

Reminder of Attendance expectations:

- Ensure your child/young person attends every day the school is open; except when a legal reason applies
- Notify the school as soon as possible when your child/young person is unexpectedly absent
- Book any medical appointments around the school day where possible
- Only request leave of absence in exceptional circumstances and do so in advance (please note: family holidays are not generally considered exceptional circumstances and all leave of absence requests are considered at the headteacher's discretion)

Please also be aware that taking your child out of school after registration in the afternoon will still count as an unauthorised session as they are not in school during the afternoon.

CHANGES TO FINES FOR UNAUTHORISED ABSENCES

With the introduction of the new National Framework for penalty notices, the following changes will come into force for fixed penalty notice fines issued for unauthorised absences recorded by schools after 19 August 2024.

Fixed Penalty Notices are issued in lieu of prosecution. The decision on whether to issue an FPN or prosecute rests with the Local Authority and is made on a case-by-case basis.

National threshold

There will be a single, consistent national threshold for when a penalty notice must be considered by all schools in England of 10 sessions (usually equivalent to five full school days) of unauthorised absence within a rolling 10 school week period.
For example: a five-day holiday would meet the national threshold.
The 10-school week period can span different terms or school years.

Who may be fined?

Penalty notice fines are issued to each parent who allows their child/young person to be absent from school.
For example: three siblings absent for term time leave would result in each parent who allowed the holiday receiving three separate fines.

First offence

The first time a penalty notice is issued for an unauthorised term time holiday, the fine amount will be:
£80 per parent, per child/young person if paid within 21 days, increasing to £160 if paid between days 22-28.

Second offence (within three years)

The second time a penalty notice is issued for unauthorised absence, the amount will be:
£160 per parent (who allowed the holiday), per child/young person, payable within 28 days.

Third offence and any further offences (within three years)

The third time an offence is committed, a penalty notice will not be issued and local authorities will need to consider other available measures to address the absence concerns.
This may mean that cases are presented before a Magistrate's Court.
Prosecution can result in criminal records and fines of up to £2,500 and/or a term of imprisonment not exceeding three months.

Please note any monies collected through fines come back to Cumberland Council to facilitate attendance support and not to schools.

POMS Cluster Attendance Agreement 2025 - 2026

Guidance on authorised term-time pupil absence

The Education Regulations 2013 [aka, the Regulations] which came into force on 1 September 2013, made it clear that headteachers may not grant any leave of absence during term time unless "exceptional circumstances" prevail. The regulations also state that headteachers should determine the number of school days a pupil can be away from school if they grant a leave request because of "exceptional circumstances".
The fundamental principles for defining "exceptional circumstances" are that they are 'rare, significant, unavoidable and short'.
POMS cluster Headteachers have worked together to agree some guiding principles for headteachers to consider when families request absence during term-time. This will ensure consistency across the cluster and ensure all schools are sending the same message surrounding the importance of attendance at school.

Guiding Principles

1. Term times are for education. Children and families have 175 days off school to spend time together, including weekends and school holidays. Headteachers will rightly prioritise attendance. The default school policy should be that absences will not be granted during term time apart from in "exceptional circumstances".
2. The decision to authorise a pupil's absence is wholly at the headteacher's discretion based on their assessment of and circumstances of each individual request. POMS Headteachers have worked collaboratively to agree a shared approach. Schools in the POMS cluster will follow these agreed principles.
3. If an event can be reasonably scheduled outside of term time, then it will not be authorised. Holidays are, therefore, not considered exceptional circumstances.
4. Absence from school to visit seriously-ill relatives or for bereavement of a close family member are usually considered to amount to 'exceptional circumstances', but for the funeral service not for extended leave.
5. Absences for important religious observances are often considered, but only for the ceremony and not for extended leave. This is intended for one-off situations rather than regular or recurring events
6. Schools may wish to take the needs of the families of service personnel into account if they are returning from long operational tours that prevent contact during scheduled holiday time.
7. Whilst as school settings we must make reasonable adjustments for pupils with special educational needs or disabilities in school time. Regarding attendance, we work closely with our colleagues from our local special schools. In line with their guidance, we would not consider requests that are based on holidays during quieter times.
8. Families may need time together to recover from a trauma or crisis.
9. POMS schools will consider a pupil's historical record of attendance when making absence-related decisions

10. It is important to note that headteachers can determine the length of the authorised absence as well as whether an absence is authorised.
11. Absence will only be authorised where proper request procedures have been followed and the permission given.

12. Tickets and/or other travel arrangements should not be booked prior to discussion with and agreement of the school.

13. Parents and Carers should not confuse telling the school about an absence with having permission.

14. Whether alternative care arrangements have been considered by the parent to limit the time away from school.

15. The impact on any interventions, assessments or referrals being undertaken with the child or family, for example, family support, social care assessments, CAMHS, SEN.

16. The potential impact that the absence will have on the child.

This guidance has been agreed by all schools in the POMS (Partnership of Millom Schools) cluster;
Parkview Nursery School
Millom Infant School
Black Combe Junior School
Haverigg Primary School
St James' Catholic Primary School
Thwaites Nursery & Primary School
Captain Shaw Nursey & Primary School
